BILL OF PRICES FOR CARPENTERS and JOINER'S WORK

Feb. 20th 1856.

The Carpenters and Joiners met according to appointment.

Mr. Goforth was called to the chair and W. A. Naylor was appointed Secretary. A bill of prices was then drawn up, and agreed upon by the following gentlemen present, Messrs. Gage, Carter, Goforth, McCullough, Tucker, Peavhouse, Perkins, Vick, Powers and Naylor.

On motion of Mr. Carter, it was resolved, that a number of copies be printed for distribution among the carpenters belonging to the agreement.

Guardian's notice to surrender his Letters.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned guardian of the person and estate of William Sullivan a minor heir of Nathan Sullivan dec'd, has filed in the Probate Court of Panola County, his petition to surrender his letters and will at the next May Term of said court present an account of his Guardianship of said minor, so far as the same is extended for allowance with commissions and apply for a final hearing of said Petition.

March 21 1856.
